Mainstream and Alternative Media Contributing Enough to Adaptation?

- Kunda Dixit, Editor and Publisher, Nepali Times
- Jessica Cheam, Correspondent, Straits Times
- Joydeep Gupta, Director, Third Pole
- Johannes Voordouw, Panos Caribbean

Moderator, Craig Hobbs, The Media Alliance

Mainstream and Alternative Media Contributing Enough to Adaptation?

- Questions for the panel discussion:
- 1. Is mainstream media doing enough to communicate climate change adaptation?
- 2. Are social media and movements more effective channels communicating and evoking action?
- 3. How do you assess what your audience already knows already knows about climate change?
- 4. How do you know what they need or want to know?
- 5. How do you know that your communications about climate change are effective?

Climate Change Study 2011 – The Philippines, Thailand and Vietnam

© 2012 Ipsos. All rights reserved. Contains Ipsos' Confidential and Proprietary information and may not be disclosed or reproduced without the prior written consent of Ipsos

- Vietnam

 HCM
- The Philippines Metro Manila
- Thailand Greater Bangkok

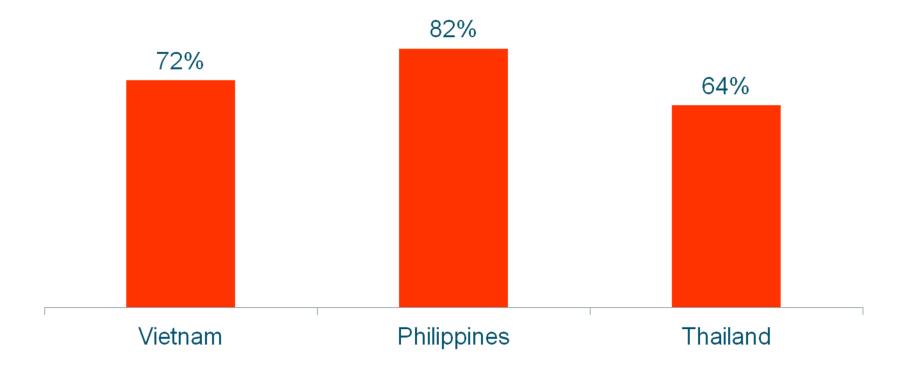

How do you feel regarding the effects of climate change? (Very concerned/Somewhat concern) Base: All respondents

Especially in Philippines and Vietnam

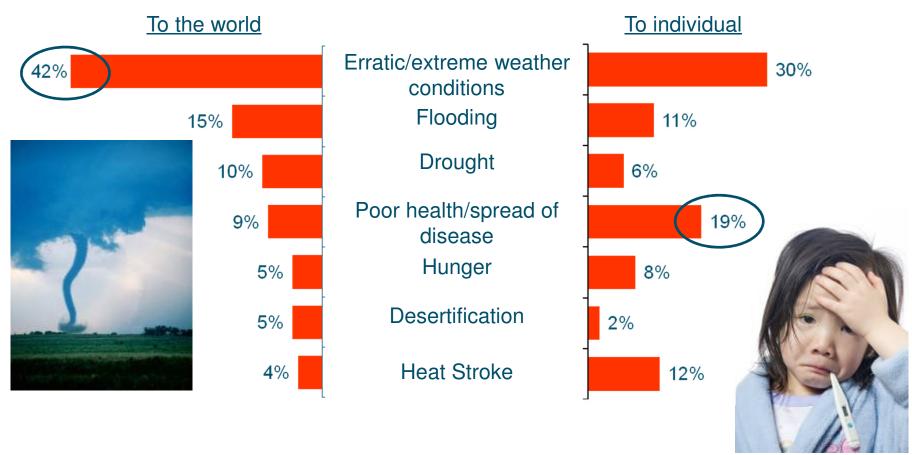

Concern about climate change (Very concerned/Somewhat concern)

Extreme weather and spread of diseases were the main dangers of climate change

Main danger of climate change

What do you regard as the main danger of climate change to the world? What do you regard as the main danger of climate change to you? Base: All respondents who believe climate's changing

Top 5 main factors causing climate change

Human causes (waste, population increases, electricity, etc) 38%

Deforestation

21%

Pollution

13%

Industrialisation/ Globalisation 10%

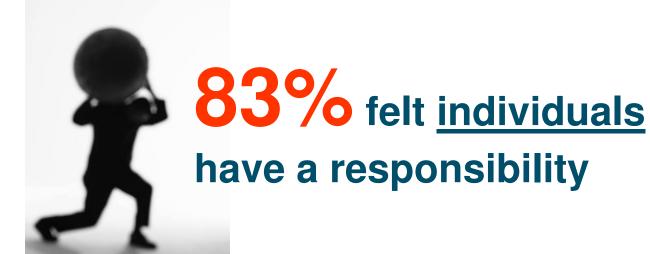

Car

5%

What do you believe is the main factor causing the Earth's climate change? Base: All respondents who believed climate's changing

Who have a responsibility to reduce climate change?

56% felt companies have a responsibility

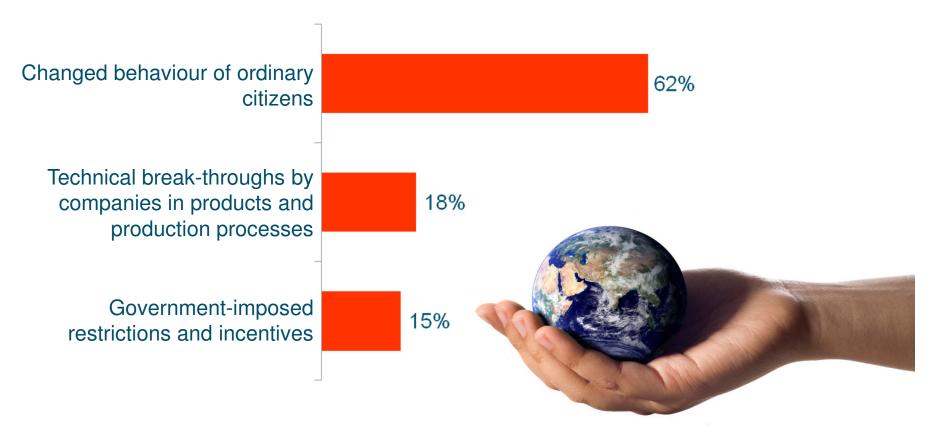

Do you, as an individual, have a responsibility to help reduce climate change? Do companies have a responsibility to ensure they help reduce climate change? Base: All respondents who believed climate's changing

Ordinary people can save our planet

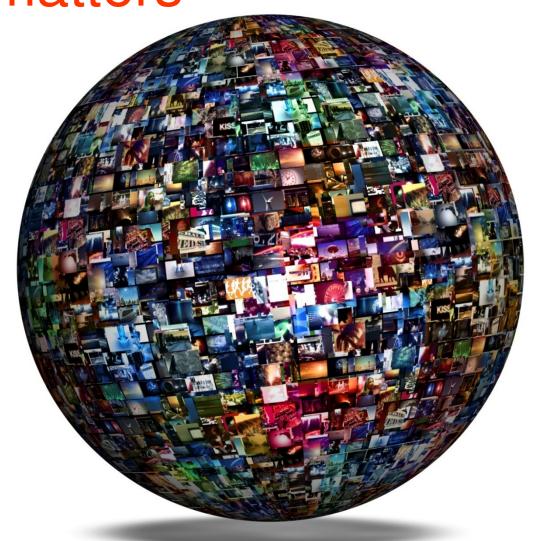

To tackle climate change in your country, it will be fixed most by

In terms of tackling climate change within your country, do you think it will be fixed most by Base: All respondents who believe climate's changing

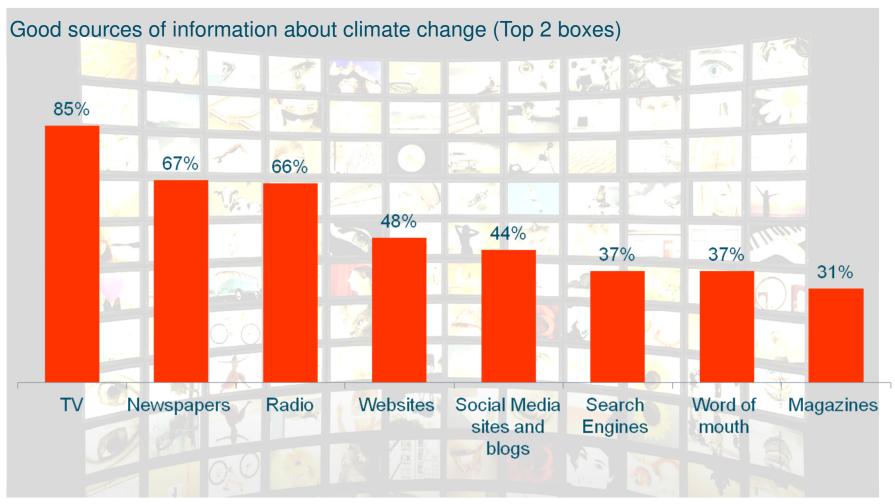

Media matters

Television was perceived to be a good source of information about climate change

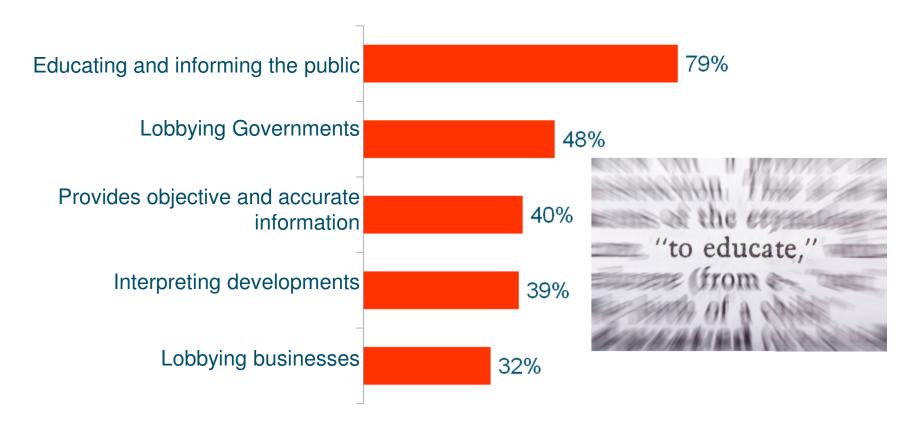

Please rate the following sources of media information about climate change using a scale of 1-5, where 1 is excellent and 5 is very poor Base: All respondents who believe climate's changing

PH, TH, VN report

Media should take the role to educate the public about climate change

Role of media in combating climate change

Which of the following actions do you feel media should take to play an effective role in combating climate change Base: All respondents who believe climate's changing

Mainstream and Alternative Media Contributing Enough to Adaptation?

- Questions for the panel discussion:
- 1. Is mainstream media doing enough to communicate climate change adaptation?
- 2. Are social media and movements more effective channels communicating and evoking action?
- 3. How do you assess what your audience already knows already knows about climate change?
- 4. How do you know what they need or want to know?
- 5. How do you know that your communications about climate change are effective?